

What is a Chamber of Commerce?

Why should you become a member of your Chamber of Commerce?

A chamber of commerce is a coalition of area businesses, industries, organizations and professionals who pool their talents and resources to improve the economic, civic and cultural climate of their community.

Businesses and organizations are eligible to belong to the chamber of commerce. Dues are structured so even the smallest business can be a member.

The Chamber is an advocate and service organization for businesses. It provides a venue through which business professionals can take effective action for the progress and growth of their communities.

- As a Chamber member, you become a part of an organization with a strong credible voice that speaks out on behalf of business and industry.
- A chamber membership allows you to shape your community by participating in projects and special task groups that apply business-oriented solutions to community concerns.
- As a Chamber member, you have access to one of the most efficient, effective networking systems available to promote your business and expand your customer base.
- Your local Chamber of Commerce works tirelessly to promote members, and can provide you with resources and referrals to grow your business.
- A Chamber membership can boost your community image and increase your sales. A recent national survey found that consumers are 63% more likely to buy from Chamber members.

Be A Part of the DeKalb Chamber of Commerce!

The DeKalb Chamber of Commerce is a 71 year old membership based organization created to foster business development in DeKalb County. The DeKalb Chamber of Commerce speaks on behalf of the stated interest of the business community located in DeKalb County, the City of Decatur, Metro Atlanta, and throughout Georgia. The mission of the DeKalb Chamber of Commerce is to support, promote, and sustain business development in DeKalb County through public policy, business advocacy, educational involvement, and community awareness.

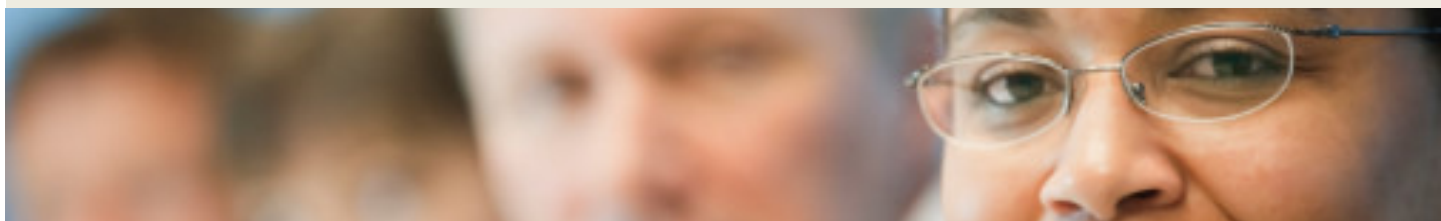

Founded in 1938, The DeKalb Chamber of Commerce is “the voice of business in DeKalb County”. Membership contributions in the form of dues or sponsorships go to support the initiatives set by the membership base and ensure that the Chamber is able to communicate with DeKalb County at large about issues directly affecting our community.

The DeKalb Chamber of Commerce is proud of its community and the strength of our united membership. DeKalb County has thousands of professionals with unparalleled expertise and collective influence ~ all working hand-in-hand.

The DeKalb Chamber membership has a long history of working with the rich tapestry of businesses, people and organizations that give the county its leading economic standing in the metro area. The Chamber often initiates public/private partnerships to develop policies and programs to support its key goal: promoting balanced growth to achieve a high quality of life for the county’s residents and workforce.

The DeKalb Chamber has an extensive menu of services that can build your business, give your business additional exposure and provide you with members-only benefits. The DeKalb Chamber can assist with business plans, business administration, business regulations, starting a small business, guide you to licensed businesses for your area, and much more. The DeKalb Chamber can also assist you with getting help for employee benefits, tax services, human resources, payroll and many other business needs.

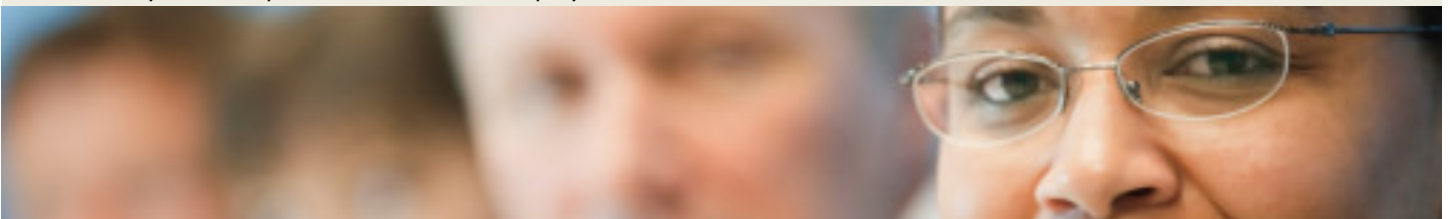

DeKalb is a great place for business. Businesses are encouraged to support the DeKalb Chamber’s efforts for a business community can only be as strong as its Chamber.

Recent Accomplishments

- Initiated a million dollar fundraising campaign... to better fund the Chamber enable it to focus on key issues such as education, workforce development, public policy, government affairs, smart growth, and economic development to name a few.
- Provided Hundreds of Business Contacts... to members in the metro area through our successful networking programs such as Network DeKalb Leads Group, Business-After-Hours, First Monday Luncheons, Small Business Conference and Business Expo.
- Lobbied for DeKalb County Business Interest... to our elected officials on the county, state, and federal levels.
- Improved and Implemented New Programs... reinstated the Leads Group, improved the First Monday Lunch program, started the Government Affairs Council, the Business Builder Seminar series, and began an annual Golf Tournament.
- Improved membership relations... to continue to provide pertinent information to members on key Chamber events and DeKalb County community activities.
- Created new marketing opportunities for members... to advertise and promote their goods and services via weekly email blast, newsletters, and the hosting and sponsoring of Chamber programs and events.
- Provided access to elected officials... through our program and special events.
- Added new cost saving discounts... through Drugs Don't Work, where members save 7.5 percent on workers comp premiums; Auto Owners Insurance where members save 12 percent on various commercial insurance policies; Blue Cross Blue Shield where member companies of 2 to 59 save on group health insurance; and Ameritas where members can save on vision and dental insurance.
- Producing Membership Directory and Newcomers Guide... which includes comprehensive community information ranging from demographics and labor profiles to local education, health system and recreation. This piece serves as our premier marketing tool for newcomers into this county.
- Partnered with other business and community organizations... such as the Atlanta Regional Commission, Regional Business Coalition, and Perimeter Community Improvement Districts to promote and support activities that will continue to add to the economic growth of DeKalb County.
- Continued to promote small business... through Wal-Mart's Job Opportunity Zone (JOZ) program whereby member companies have the opportunity to receive advertising grants and in store spotlights from the world's largest retailer.
- Continue to promote DeKalb County... by assisting over 100 callers weekly with questions about local business, community interest, and newcomer information just to name a few.

These are just a few of the many benefits companies receive as members of the DeKalb Chamber. The success of these programs and initiatives are a direct result of member support and participation in the Chamber. The business community's commitment and investment in the DeKalb Chamber allows us to make sure that DeKalb County is better place to live, work, and play.

Good News for Chamber Members

National study:
Consumers 63% more likely to buy from chamber members.

WASHINGTON — A national study by The Schapiro Group, an Atlanta-based market research firm, reveals a number of important findings about how consumers and business owners perceive the local chamber of commerce and the businesses that are their members. For example:

- ▶ When consumers know that a business is a member of the local chamber, they are 44% more likely to think favorably about it.
- ▶ Consumers who are told that a business is a chamber member are 51% more likely to be highly aware of it and 57% more likely to think positively of its local reputation.
- ▶ Consumers are 63% more likely to buy goods and services in the future from a company that they believe is a member of the local chamber of commerce.

The study also has good news for businesses that sell to other businesses.

- ▶ When business decision-makers believe that a business is a chamber member, they are 37% more likely to think favorably of the business, 51% more likely to be highly aware of it, 58% more likely to think positively of its local reputation, and 59% more likely to buy goods and services from it.

Supporting the previous findings, the study also reveals a positive perception for the local chamber itself:

- ▶ Regarding the chamber's impact on the local economy, 82% of respondents believe that the local chamber of commerce helps create jobs and promotes local economic development.

The results of the Schapiro study are clear: Positive perception increases among consumers and business owners when a business is identified as a member of the local chamber of commerce.

Sponsorship Opportunities

The Chamber's many programs and events afford members the opportunity for visibility, community recognition, and identification with one of the most successful Chambers in the US.

It's a win-win for both the Chamber and the member organization. The sponsoring company is able to target marketing dollars in a cost-effective way while allowing for participation in significant events. The Chamber, in turn, has the satisfaction of involved members who are better able to market their goods and services.
