Commonly Asked Questions

- Q: “Do I have to drug test all of my employees?”
A: No. Drug testing will apply to new hires, after accidents, on reasonable suspicion and post treatment.
- Q: “Do I have to fire an employee who tests positive for drugs?”
A: No, you may fire an employee, or refer them for treatment.
- Q: “Can I afford drug treatment costs?”
A: Only limited drug testing is required, and the Chamber can provide resources that offer discounted rates for members.
- Q: “It’s hard to find workers now. Will this limit the pool of workers I can draw from?”
A: If you choose to do so, you may limit the positions you test for to “safety-sensitive.”
